facing the coming years
we can feel an unseen bond that unites us all.
alone we are weak
together we are strong if someone falls we must reach out and help touch someone and find a friend.
when we have gone our separate ways
we will be held together
still a part of the circle of hands that exists today

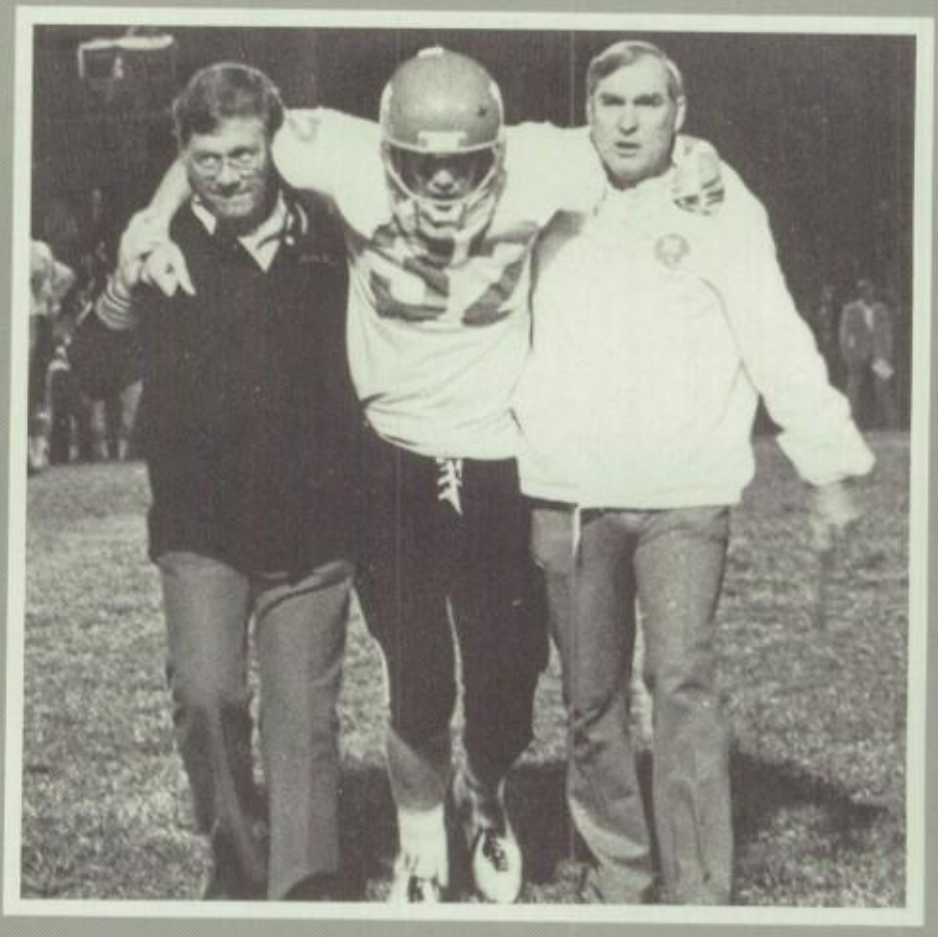
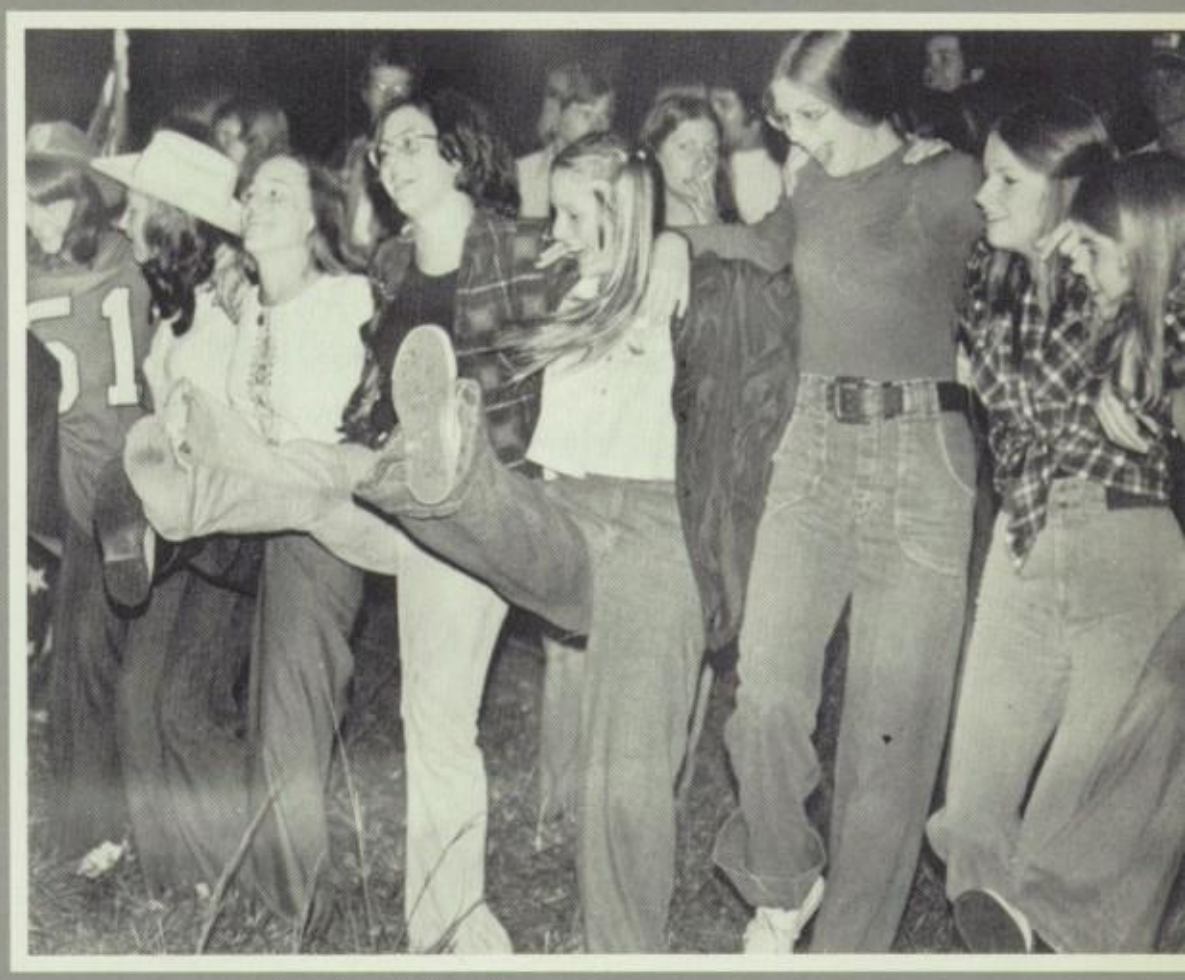
"Reach out in the darkness and you may find a friend."

"Take my hand that I might understand."



"Just call on me brother when you need a hand we all need somebody to lean on."

"If the hands of time were hands that I could hold, I'd keep them warm and in my hands they'd not turn cold."



"Hands touching hands reaching out touching me touching you."

STUDENT LIFE

Our hands have participated in many activities during our school days. We have had weary hands from building floats painting signs writing, writing, and rewriting rehearsing over and over decorating for the dances creating works of art making tackles (but never holding) trembling hands opening night making that first speech before the placing of the crown wiping tears of joy and sorrow guiding the way to a better tomorrow.

Home From the Mountains

The neon signs were flashing, the cold wind began to blow
His shoes filled up with water, as the rain turned into snow
His hopes were dead, his eyes were red, and his wine was very low
As the old man came in from the mountains.

His tears fell on the sidewalk as he stumbles in the street
People stopped to stare, but no one stopped to speak
His life was empty, the bottle his only friend
As the old man stumbled down from the mountains.

Up the dark staircase the old man made his way
Wrapped in his ragged coat upon his cot he did lay
Thinking of himself and how he ended up this way
Getting lost like a fool in the mountains.

While there sleeping a vision did appear
The face of a girl he once loved so dear
It was in the spring of his life in some forgotten year
When the wild flowers bloom in the mountains.

She touched his worn face, and called him by his name
Then he heard children, playing at their game
In a little house on a hillside in some forgotten town
Next to a river, that runs down from the mountains.

With a mighty roar the big jets soar above the city street
Things move on–life goes on, the city never sleeps
But for this old soul the dawn will come no more Because the old man has come home from the mountains.

SWEET NECTAR DOTH THE HONEY BEE

Sweet nectar doth the honey bee
Collect from nature's garden.
For stealing from the tiny stamen
God may grant him pardon.

Yet, if the Lord should ask of him
The nectar to return,
Gladly would he bring it back
Than long in Tophet burn.

There Is Only One You

There is only one you, and there always will be
Only one you in this world for me;
    others may pause as they happen by,
And for the moment attract my eye;
    Others may flatter and even intrude,
To fascinate me for an interlude.

But I will return in a little while
    To the spell of your love—the warmth of your smile,
For there's only one you, and there always will be.
Only one you in this world for me.

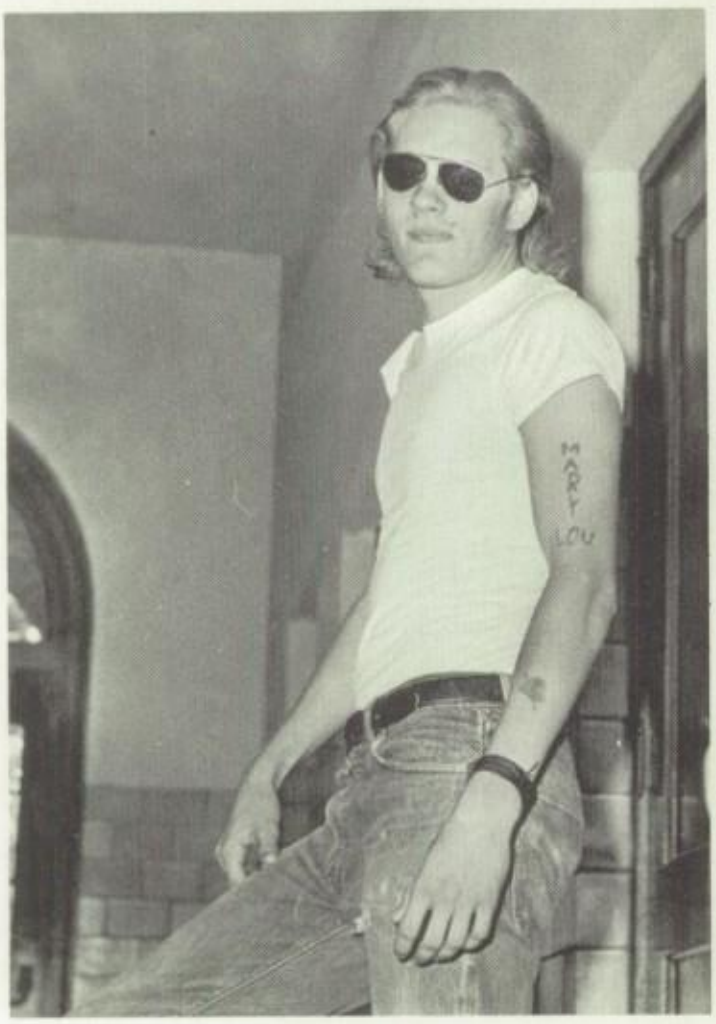
HOMECO



With the overall theme of Nostalgia, Homecoming 74 was one of the most unique ever held at Maryville High. The days were filled with scurried activities such as the pie eating contest, the hula hoop competition and the tricycle race. An assembly highlighted the week with participants dressed in appropriate costumes for their singing and jitterbugging. The nights were filled with the cutting, stretching, and stuffing of crepe paper. Continuing the theme of Nostalgia, the Student Council invited the football captains from 1926 through 1974 to return and be honored at the half time festivities Friday night. Most of the captains returned and were recognized at the game and at a reception following the game. A special thanks goes to the Student Council for making Homecoming week an exciting and enjoyable one.

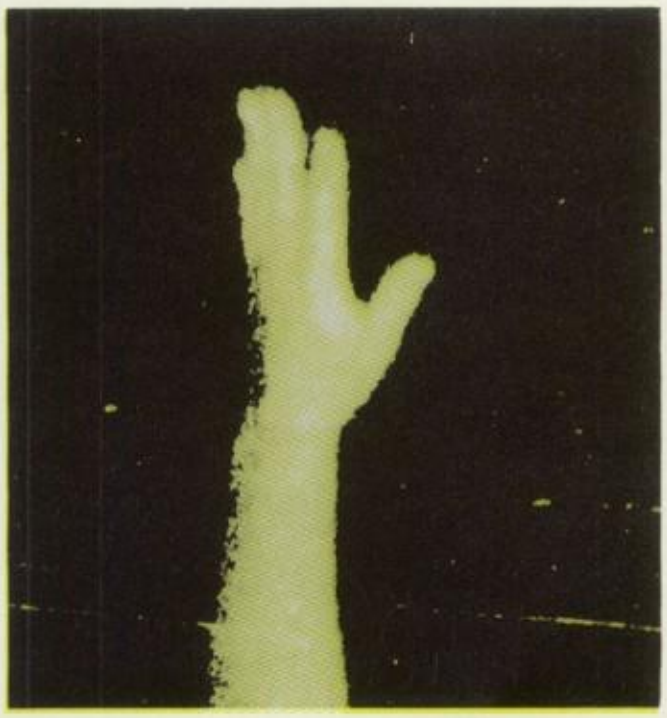
SPORTS



Sports at Maryville High are a very important part of school life. The hands of our athletes have been busy receiving the long bomb dunking the basketball knocking a home run driving down the fairway throwing the shot put hammering in the game point splashing their way to a victory raised high in ecstacy over that winning touchdown dribbling speedily down the court catching that high fly for the last out passing the baton shaking the hands of our opponents controlling anger at unfair referees uniting the school with a feeling of team spirit.

I'm a REBEL born, I'm a REBEL bred, and when I die I'll be a REBEL dead . . . 1-2-3-4-5 Mighty REBS don't take no jive . . .

Cheerleaders 74-75: Sarah Lambert, Sheree Cate, Sherry Lambert, Mary Henderson, Teresa Aiello, Joni Gilbert, Hope Headrick.

Maryville's cheerleaders are big instigators of spirit at M.H.S. The girls learned many new techniques and cheers at Cheerleader Camp at Tennessee Tech this summer. They represented our school very impressively by winning 4 superior ribbons and 1 to bring home, 3 spirit sticks with 1 to bring home, and were finalists for the Dr. Pepper award. Throughout our sports year the cheerleaders show much enthusiasm and pep in their undying support of our teams.

Fire up for victory . . . Stand up get ready to watch the REBELS rock steady . . . Harass them make them relinquish the ball . . .

CAPTAINS

Barry Mathis, Doyle Satterfield, Robby Bailes, Jerry Thompson.

Just as the leaves fall every autumn, Maryville always has an excellent football team. The brilliant coaching staff develops the talents of our athletes and forms a winning team. This year our team has fought valiantly every Friday night. Our boys bounced back from an unlucky defeat to roll over the rest of their opponents until injuries weakened the team. The Rebels faithfully represented our school in their very difficult schedule and we are proud of each and every one of them.

The girl's team this year has shown great improvement, spirit, and hustle. Juniors, sophomores, and seniors have combined efforts to form a smooth running and winning team. For the offense, Captain Kenna Whitehead and Pam Yontz form a dynamite two-some, with the help of swift-footed Lisa Anderson and Annette Adams at opportune times. On the other end of the court, Becky Davis, Janice McCorkle, Vickie MaGuire, and Teresa Hord guard, rebound, dribble and pass their way to success. But the team could be nothing without a talented bench with Nancy Talbott, Donna Whitehead, Beverly Whaley, Kathleen MaGuire, and Debbie Metcalf.

SWIMMING

Swimming is not one of the most recognized sports at Maryville, but the swim team is always one of the strongest in the state. This year is no exception. The 1975 swim team, led by Captains Libby Cochran and Holger Liedloff, has great experience and tremendous potential. Special recognition goes to Senior Doug Lambert who was selected to go to the National Junior Olympics and finished 6th in the 200 meter freestyle. With participants like Doug, the team hopes to complete another successful year.

FACULTY

Throughout our years at Maryville High the hands of our teachers have always been there leading all our efforts selling tickets to our ballgames sponsoring our clubs and dances handing out all those handouts making all those green ink marks reprimanding our rowdiness shushing our incessant chattering making all those useless gestures clapping for our accomplishments patting our backs in our disappointments helping us to learn not only school work but how to succeed in life.

The role of the Student Council at Maryville High has always been to plan for and represent the students of the school. This year's council has carried out their job exceptionally well. Ably led by President Bud Gilbert, Vice-President John Olive, and Secretary-Treasurer Jenny Phillips, the Student Council sponsored all the daily Homecoming activities, the American Graffitti Dance, and the spirit chain. They have also worked hard on solving the smoking problems, improving cheerleading elections, and involving more students in school decisions.

HOLGER

Dear Maryville High Rebels,

I have great memories of the times spent at Maryville High. The friends I made here will not be forgotten.

I loved all sports and especially football games, Pep Rallies, and Intramurals. It is a fantastic experience to live a year in another country which is so hospitable like yours. I am glad that I took the chance from AFS to see and get to know America. I would like to come back to y'all.

APPALACHIAN

Hours upon hours of choosing and cropping pictures; writing, typing, and proofreading copy; drawing and copying over layouts; and flashing bulbs in everyone's eyes are the basis of an annual. No one can understand the work behind the yearbook until they help put one together. We have tried very hard this year to make an annual which you will enjoy when you are looking back over your high school years. This year has been one of excitement and growth for most of us, and we have tried to include the highlights of the year so that they might stir happy (or perhaps sad) memories for all of us.

M.H.S. is a place in which we learn to another. Between our three classes there have been hands defiant in competition clasping in love

repenting after anger passes mischievous in practical jokes co-operating in support of the team pleading for class dues passing on the answers to last year's tests tutoring the juniors with clapping for the truly talented (and in pity for those without it) combined in a genuine love and respect

SENIORS

The last year at MHS! We know we love it even as we yearn to leave. There are all the friends we may never see again and the memories . . . winning the float contest 2 years (and it should've been three), leading the spirit at the best pep rallies in MHS history, back-breaking rehearsals for two successful plays, a great comedy PILLOW TALK and a standing ovation for our drama DARK OF THE MOON, decorating a beautiful winner for the hall contest, practicing, participating and leading the athletic teams at MHS, winning Powder-Puff game our junior year, first class to know all the words to the Alma Mater, and with graduation the last look at the school which played such an important part in our maturity.

SOPHOMORES

The first year at MHS! Sophomores have to learn what high school is like. The sophomores this year have done a good job of joining in and becoming a part of school activities. Sophomores remember . . . winning the Powder Puff game, doing a great job on the first float, winning the Hoola Hoop contest, winning the first spirit stick, and looking forward to two more successful years.

Thank-you all for being who you are, for that is what really makes the annual.
